Scripture Lessons ...look them up!

Jeremiah 18: 1-11. Growing up, we used to sing a hymn called “Have Thine Own Way,” and it used the beautiful imagery of Jeremiah's God-as-potter, we-as-clay. Comes from this text; take a look.

John 6: 5-14, 26-27. Seems appropriate that in the week when we restart our Loaves and Fishes midweek dinners, we will be hearing an account of the loaves and fishes from John. The text will serve as our Gospel reading for the day.

Don't forget the day's activities ...

- A sign up form is near the elevator for the Loaves and Fishes meal on Wednesday, beginning at 6:41 p.m. The Folded Napkin will be providing a meal of fried chicken, mashed potatoes, beans, rolls, and tea. Cost is $7.
- Christian Education materials for the fall have arrived and may be picked up on Sunday. Wednesday's Bible study will be using Luke, by Thomas Walker ($12.50). The Pathfinders Class will be studying When Jesus Came to Harvard, by Harvey Cox. The Moseley Class will be using The Present Word. See Mark for the materials.
- Prayer concerns: Lynn Crawford; Clarice Davenport; Frances Edmundson (Britthaven--SH); William MacIntosh; Charles Yarbrough; Sarah Bendle (surgery on Tuesday at Pitt); Eleanor Rouse (surgery on Friday at LMH); celebration of the birth of Constantine George Panagacus to Deborah West Panagacus and Alex Panagacus.

Blessings and peace upon you!

Mark Benson
